MAUNA LANI BAY OFFERS AN ENDLESS SUMMER OF GOLF

KOHALA COAST, HAWAII – While summer transitions into fall, Hawaii continues to offer the perfect climate for a golf vacation.

Consistent blue skies and sunny 80 degree days complement the breathtaking scenery of Mauna Lani Resort's championship Francis H. I'i Brown North & South Courses. Lush green fairways make a statement contrast against ink-black ancient volcanic lava. The glistening crystal clear Pacific Ocean provides a backdrop that cannot be rivaled.

The Mauna Lani Bay Hotel & Bungalows invites you to take advantage of its incredible Endless Summer Golf promotion. This limited-time offer includes room accommodation, two rounds of golf per room per day AND complimentary use of TaylorMade rental clubs.

Relax in one of Mauna Lani's gorgeous Ocean View rooms for $395 per night (plus tax). Or, wake up to the sound of the ocean only a few yards away from your lanai in an Ocean Front room for $445 per night (plus tax). Ocean View rooms alone normally start at $625 a night.

The Endless Summer Golf promotion is available for travel between August 21 through October 15, 2011 with a minimum three night stay. Reservations must be made by August 31, 2011.

The Francis H. I'i Brown North & South Courses offers exciting and challenging golf for novices and experienced golfers alike. Each course is a masterpiece of design, strikingly different yet both environmentally sensitive to the surrounding archeological sites including ancient Hawaiian petroglyphs, fishponds and trails.

The South Course is known for its two spectacular ocean holes – 7 and 15. The over-the-water, dramatic no. 15 is one of the most photographed holes in the world. The picturesque no. 7 is a stunning par-3 framed by the ocean on the left and a salt-and-pepper sand dune on the right.

The rolling fairways of the North Course weave between Kiawe forests and offer a more challenging experience than the South Course. The first hole is a classic par-4 with a dogleg right that invites risk off the tee to win the rewards. No 17, a par-3 tucked into a natural lava amphitheater, is the course's signature hole. It plays from an elevated tee to a wide green.

The Mauna Lani Bay Hotel & Bungalows is recognized as one of Travel + Leisure's "World's Best Hotels" and is also on Conde Nast Traveler's "Gold List". The resort's comprehensive cultural, environmental and health, fitness and outdoor recreation programs make the Mauna Lani Bay experience like no other.
