Mauna Lani Resort features two championship golf courses, the Francis H. I'i Brown North and South, with challenging experiences for novice and professional golfers alike. The North and South are masterpieces of design, each strikingly different, yet equally challenging, with both placed firmly among the world's finest golfing meccas. The North and South courses are examples of what environmentally-sensitive golf course architecture can achieve.

The recipient of a Gold Medal Award from Golf magazine every year since the inception of the award in 1988, Mauna Lani also played host to the nationally televised Senior Skins Game golf tournament from 1990-2000. Mauna Lani Resort was also rated one of the "Top Ten Green Resorts" by Golf magazine for 2008-2009.
