SANDY TUASON NAMED EXECUTIVE CHEF AT THE MAUNA LANI BAY HOTEL & BUNGALOWS

- Renowned Chef Joins Mauna Lani Bay's Talented Culinary Team

KOHALA COAST, HAWAII - The Mauna Lani Bay Hotel & Bungalows located on the Kohala Coast announced the appointment of Sandy Tuason as Executive Chef. Chef Tuason will oversee all of Mauna Lani's culinary operations and will be instrumental in showcasing Mauna Lani's new dining experience.

Chef Tuason joins us from the Four Seasons Resort in Nevis, West Indies. His 18 years of culinary experience include his tenure as Executive Sous Chef at the Four Seasons, New York and Le Madri Italian Restaurant. He's trained under the tutelage of renowned Chefs Daniel Boulud and David Burke. In London he refined his culinary talents under Star Michelin French Chefs, Albert Roux and Michel Roux.

"Chef Tuason's wealth of culinary experience, service to the community and commitment to the growth and development of his staff make him the perfect fit for Mauna Lani. Chef Tuason is passionate about the culinary field and his cuisine has a whimsical flair to delight our guests. He will set a new bar in Hawaii's dining experience, said General Manager Brian Butterworth.

Chef Sandy is excited to bring his culinary talents to Mauna Lani Bay as he presents an exciting cooking flair delivered on every plate.

Tuason is a graduate of the French Culinary Institute in New York and has a Bachelor of Arts degree in English Literature.
